Our Ali B can trace her passion for fitness right back to her early years when she trained to be a gymnast and was a competitive runner. She is a Pro Bikini Athlete in two federations - UKUP and the Global BodyBuilding Organisation (GBO). She is also preparing to debut as a Pro Bikini athlete in Italy. She won her first bikini competition 12 months after having a baby - proof that she always gives 100% to my fitness and training, resulting in the incredible physique she has today.
