

Neil C

Fitness and underwear model

Our Neil C is a firefighter by day and a fitness and body engineering pro by night. The perfect combination! He is an international fitness presenter and athlete, currently in prep for the Pure Elite World Championships after placing 3rd and 5th in fitness model categories during the summer of 2017. He describes the gym as his "happy place" - just as well because he spends 6-7 days a week there!

Height: 5ft 3"

Weight: 55kg
