Fitness Model

Our Matthew is a young all-round fitness model who we think would suit sportswear modelling exceptionally well. He has a smooth, defined body which will showcase gym gear, underwear or swimwear to perfection. The gym is Matthew's second home - he trains six days a week, following a bodybuilding routine inspired by famous bodybuilders. He combines this with ultra endurance running for all-round fitness. Matthew has also done many sports including, MMA, boxing, rugby and rock climbing.
